Goldman, Erlich, Edelstein, Avigad won a precedential ruling in the Supreme Court

In a precedential ruling, the Supreme Court accepted the claim filed by Mr. Arie Jacobson, the appellant, against the Respondent, Mr. Niv Vigdor, after the former was the victim of fraud, signing a deposit agreement, where his actual intention was to restore the amounts borrowed and unpaid by the Respondent.

Pursuant to the Supreme Court ruling, the District Court conducted a hearing on the compensation amount, ruling that the Respondent must pay the Appellant over 24M NIS.
